

Times Education Brisbane News!

Times Education is pleased to announce that we have received our Occupancy Certificate for a 4– floor campus at 316 Adelaide Street, Brisbane. This modern, spacious and bright new campus will be delivering a host of courses including ; business, IT and accounting.

With a spacious, colourful and built-for purpose floor plan, we look forward to opening our doors in early 2018.

Times Education will also use space at our gorgeous new facilities for a new corporate office for the group. It will be a flagship for the growth, prosperity and quality in education of Times Education.

Adelaide Street is in the heart of Brisbane. It is right by Central station and easily accessible by public transit. It is close to all the hustle and bustle of the city and many higher education campuses of renowned universities. There area is filled with high-fashion, trendy eateries and is also home to the some of the CBD's most significant historical sites.

Stay-tunes to the Times Education Newsletter for more news about our launch, facilities, programs and schools opening in Brisbane.

Stay-tunes to the Times Education Newsletter for more news about our launch, facilities, programs and schools opening in Brisbane.