Times Academy Schools Network

Times Academy launched its HSP class in June 2017. At that point, with two high school partners, we started our program with a difference.

What makes our English for High School Preparation and English for Primary School program different?

Times focusses on teaching of morals and values to our students. While it is important for students to learn English, it is also crucial for them to be socially and mentally prepared for their lives in Australia.

Most ESL schools in Australia focus on teaching only English language skills and students can spend 3- 6 months developing their language and not developing themselves to become young contributing members to the Australian community. Our curriculum aims to change this.

Each week students are given a value or characteristic that is the theme and focus for the week. Our character and morals are interconnected, and through this course, Times Academy seeks to make our students well-rounded, community-minded, caring, thoughtful, successful and happy.

Our comprehensive Morals and Values curriculum is quickly making Times Academy a stand-out amongst other school preparation programs.

Trainer of the Month: Julie Tennet

Born in the Channel Island of Jersey in the UK, Julie Tennet is the course coordinator and trainer for the Times Academy Childcare courses. She leads an active life with her husband, Gary and two children; Jacinta and Zac.

Favorite Food: Seafood

What she does in her free time: Cycling, Zip-lining and adrenaline activities

Years of Working in Childcare: 33 wonderful years

What she loves about teaching: Being able to interact and work with like-minded people with a passion for caring and educating young children

Crazy things happen every week in the classroom! In childcare we have to be crazy — we often sing, dance, dress up and act silly! It keeps us young and in tune with the ones we care for!
